

Weekly Report

Week III -March 25th - March 31th

During Week III KC has been finalizing the whole new section of the second part "Wabi-Sabi" as full-evening length work that will be presented at the showing of the following week. Info at: <http://www.cc-hd.de/veranstaltungen/>

As the choreographer, I conceived a new transition for a particular section this week, keeping my options open as far as creating more new material and by the end of this week a completely new duet was created.

We also just published the two promos of this new creations and we are very excited to share them. There are now live on social medias and youtube at :
